Numb. 15265.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 7, to Tuesday June 10, 1800.

St. James's, June 4, 1800.

THE following Addreſſes have been preſented to the King; which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly:

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Citizens, and Inhabitants of the City of Glouceſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WITH the deepeſt Abhorrence of the late impious Attempt on your Majeſty's Life, an Attempt which nothing could excite but the moſt outrageous Infanity, or the ſtill more outrageous Influence of that baneful Spirit which ſeeks the Deſtruction of all Order, and of every Thing eſtimable in Society, we the Mayor, Citizens, and Inhabitants of your ancient and loyal City of Glouceſter, beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our ſincereſt Congratulations on that gracious Providence, which ſhielded your ſacred Perſon from the Blow of the Aſſaſſin.

Endeared to us by the great and amiable Example of your whole Demeanour, by our ample Experience of your mild and equitable Government, and above all, by your tried Love of our envied Conſtitution, it will be our unceaſing Prayer, that your Majeſty may long rule an affectionate Peop'e, alike victorious over foreign Enemies, and ſafe from domeſtic Traitors.

[Preſented by John Pitt and Henry Howard, Eſqrs. Members for the City of Glouceſter.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean, and Clergy of Briſtol, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with every Expreſſion of the moſt ardent Gratitude to Divine Goodneſs for the late ſignal Protection of a Life ſo valuable to the beſt Intereſts of Mankind, ſo dear to faithful Subjects, attached to your Majeſty by the united Obligations of political Obedience and perſonal Veneration, and grateful to your Majeſty for the parental Care with which you have invariably regarded their religious and civil Liberties.

May the ſame Almighty Power continue to watch over and protect your ſacred Perſon; may no Engliſhman be void of the Horror which we feel at the Crime of Aſſaſſination, or be uninfluenced by Reverence for that Example of undaunted Firmneſs in Danger, which your Majeſty has repeatedly given to your Subjects, who value it the more, as they know it to be founded on the nobleſt Principles of Religion.

[Preſented by the Biſhop of Briſtol, accompanied by the Dean of Briſtol.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Durham.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Durham, humbly preſent to your Majeſty our ſincere Congratulations on your providential Deliverance from the late wicked and atrocious Attempt on the ſacred Perſon of your Majeſty.

With Indignation and Aſtoniſhment we contemplate this moſt foul and horrid Attempt. We moſt humbly declare our Admiration of your Majeſty's Virtues, our Loyalty and Affection to your Perſon and Government, and our Gratitude for your Majeſty's conſtant Care and ſolicitude for the Welfare of your People.

We beg Leave to expreſs our anxious Zeal for the Security of your Majeſty's Perſon, and our Attachment to the Conſtitution, and to offer our Lives and Fortunes to guard and defend your Majeſty's moſt valuable Life againſt all your Enemies foreign or domeſtic.

Signed at the unanimous Reſolution of the County Meeting, held at Durham the Second Day of June, One thouſand eight hundred, and in the Name of the ſaid Meeting.

Hedworth Williamſon, Sheriff.

[Preſented by the Biſhop of Durham and Sir Ralph Milbank, Bart. and Rowland Bourdon, Eſq; Members for the County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter, the Archdeacons, and the Clergy of the Dioceſe of Durham, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our moſt heartfelt Congratulations on your Deliverance from the late nefarious Attempt on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon.

Your Majeſty reigns in the Hearts and Affections of your Subjects, who, beyond the relative Attachment of Duty, are bound to your Majeſty by Veneration for the Virtues which adorn your private Character; by long Experience of your mild and paternal Government, and particularly at this Time, by the firm Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Meaſures, which have given to them Safety and Proſperity during a Period of unexampled Danger.

Under theſe Impreſſions we pour forth our unfeigned Gratitude to that gracious Providence which has again been pleaſed to preſerve a Life ſo ineſtimably dear to us, together with our earneſt and conſtant Prayers, that in Health and Security it may long continue to be the Happineſs and Protection of your unanimous and loyal People.

[Preſented by the Biſhop of Durham.]

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Members of the Society for bettering the Condition and increaſing the Comforts of the Poor, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's Throne with Hearts deeply impreſſed with Gratitude for the late providential Preſervation of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon from the traitorous Attempt of a deſperate and wicked Aſſaſſin.

Honoured with your Majeſty's gracious Patronage, and devoted to your Service, we earneſtly pray that you may long continue in Health and Happineſs to reign over a free, loyal, and happy People; indiſſolubly attached to your Royal Perſon and Family by every Tie of Affection and Gratitude for the Bleſſings enjoyed under the Government of your Majeſty and your illuſtrious Anceſtors of the Houſe of Hanover. S. Dunelm, Preſident.

[Preſented by the Biſhop of Durham.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Commonalty, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Helſton, beg Leave to preſent our humble Congratulations for your late providential Eſcape from a moſt atrocious Attack on your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon.

Impreſſed with the ſtrongeſt Senſe of your paternal Goodneſs towards all your Subjects, we cannot but deprecate and deteſt that hardened Villany capable of forming and endeavouring to execute ſo horrible and infamous a Deſign. And we take this Opportunity of aſſuring your Majeſty that we ſhall ever be moſt zealous and ready to ſtand forward in Defence of your Majeſty's Perſon, as well as to protect thoſe Laws ſo wiſely enacted for the Benefit and Safety of all Ranks of People throughout your very extenſive Dominions.

That your Majeſty may long and happily continue to reign with uninterrupted Security over a loyal and united People, is our moſt ſincere and ardent Prayer.

[Preſented by Charles Abbott, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Wardens, Elder Brethren, and Aſſiſtants of the Guild or Brotherhood of the Trinity-Houſe of Kingſton-upon-Hull.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and ever loyal Subjects, the Wardens, Elder Brethren, and Aſſiſtants of this ancient Corporation, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our hearty and affectionate Congratulations on your Majeſty's moſt providential and happy Eſcape from the horrid and cruel Attack, lately made by a daring Aſſaſſin on your ſacred Perſon.

Deeply deploring, as every good Subject muſt have done, the direful Event, had the Bloody Attempt ſucceeded, in the ſame Degree we preſume to aſſure your Majeſty are our Hearts penetrated with humble Joy and grateful Acknowledgments to the Almighty for thus averting the impending Stroke.

That it may pleaſe the ſame Great Diſpoſer of all Human Events, long, very long to continue to us a Life which is of ſo much Conſequence to theſe Kingdoms, and in caſe of the horrid Attempt being the Reſult of Confederacy and Premeditation that the wicked Inſtigators, as well as the baſe Aſſaſſin, may meet with the Puniſhment due to a Crime of ſo horrid a Nature, is our ſincere and hearty Prayer.

Given under the Common Seal of this Corporation, this Twenty-ſecond Day of May, in the Fortieth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

Francis Hall, Warden.
Thomas Lundie, Warden.

[Preſented by William Wilberforce, Eſq; and Samuel Thornton, Eſq.]

St. James's, June 6, 1800.

THE following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to the Duke of Portland, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Grace preſented to the King; which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly:

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen and Gentlemen Heritors of the County of Fife, in a General Meeting aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen and Gentlemen Heritors of the County of Fife, beg Leave with the greateſt Humility to expreſs our Horror and Indignation at the late atrocious and treaſonable Attempt againſt your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon, and our unbounded Joy and heartfelt Congratulations upon its providential Failure.

Attached to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, by every Sentiment of Affection and Gratitude ariſing from a long Experience of the unexampled Happineſs we have enjoyed under your Majeſty's juſt and beneficent Reign, we offer up our warmeſt Thanks to Almighty God for this ſignal Inſtance of the Interpoſition of his over-ruling Providence, and earneſtly pray for the long Continuance of a Life ſo juſtly dear to us, and affording the moſt eminent Example of every public and private Virtue.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of the Meeting by Craufurd.

[Tranſmitted by the Earl of Craufurd.]

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and County of Newcaſtle-upon-Tyne, aſſembled at a General Meeting, haſten to offer to your Majeſty our moſt ſincere Congratulations on your providential Deliverance from the Attack of an Aſſaſſin; and to expreſs our Deteſtation of an Attempt, which, but for the Interpoſition of an Almighty Hand, would have inflicted on your People the moſt grievous Calamity.

We devoutly implore of the Divine Mercy a long Continuance of your Majeſty's ſacred Life and of thoſe national Bleſſings which the Virtues and paternal Care of your Majeſty, and the Poſſeſſion of an invaluable Conſtitution have procured for all Claſſes of your Majeſty's Subjects.

Signed at the unanimous Requeſt and on Behalf of the Meeting, this Twenty-eighth May One thouſand eight hundred, by Robert Shafto Hedley, Mayor and Chairman of the Meeting.

[Tranſmitted by Sir Matthew White Ridley and Charles Brandling, Eſq; Repreſentatives of the ſaid Town.]

Unto the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The dutiful, humble, and loyal Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply, Heritors, and others of the County of Linlithgow.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply, Heritors, and others of the County of Linlithgow, ſtruck with Horror at the late atrocious Attempt made againſt your ſacred Perſon, and rejoicing at your providential Eſcape, beg Leave to offer your Majeſty our moſt heartfelt Congratulations thereon, and to aſſure you of our Thankfulneſs to Almighty God for the Preſervation of your precious Life, with our fervent Prayers that He may long protect it, grant your Majeſty Health and Proſperity, and to your People the Continuance of thoſe Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's juſt and equitable Government, and to diſappoint all Attempts of your Enemies hoſtile to either.

Johnſtone Hopetoun, Preſes.

[Tranſmitted by Johnſtone Hopetoun, Eſq.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Juſtices of the Peace, Freeholders, Clergy, and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Lanark.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's Throne with the moſt affectionate Sentiments of heartfelt Congratulations on your late Eſcape from a horrid and treaſonable Attempt againſt your ſacred Perſon.

While we ſhudder at the Da: ger that threatened your precious Life, we muſt feel how much the Happineſs of your People is connected with it, and bleſs the Almighty Preſerver of our moſt gracious and beloved Sovereign.

That your Majeſty may long reign over a loyal and happy Nation, is our ardent Wiſh and Prayer.

Archibald Hamilton, Preſident.

Hamilton, May 30, 1800.

[Tranſmitted by the Duke of Hamilton and Brandon.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiff, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Radnor.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Radnor, impreſſed with a deep Senſe of the invaluable Bleſſings, which we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and propitious Government, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our warmeſt Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy and providential Eſcape from the late horrid Attempt on your ſacred Perſon.

Truly grateful for the Benefits we have received during your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, we feel ourſelves particularly intereſted in every Circumſtance which regards the Safety of the beſt of Sovereigns, and Permit us to aſſure your Majeſty of our Deteſtation and Abhorrence of every Attempt to diſturb the Tranquillity of your Dominions.

With great Pleaſure we embrace this Opportunity of aſſuring your Majeſty of our inviolable Attachment to your Perſon and Government, and we ſupplicate the Supreme Being to grant to your Majeſty a long and happy Reign, and to continue the Crown of theſe Realms to your lateſt Poſterity.

Signed and given under the Common Seal of the Corporation the Thirty-firſt Day of May, One thouſand eight hundred.

By Order of the Court,

James Price, Town Clerk.

[Tranſmitted by William Frankland, Eſq; Recorder.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the South Sea Company in General Court aſſembled, ſenſible of the gracious Patronage we have ſo long experienced from your Majeſty as our Governor, beg Leave to expreſs our warmeſt Participation in that univerſal Senſe of Joy and Gratitude which your Majeſty's late providential Eſcape has excited in the Breaſts of your faithful People.

We rejoice that the Purpoſe of open Violence has been defeated; we feel that this Interpoſition in our Behalf is an Occaſion which calls upon us to renew our Profeſſions of unfeigned Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government; we unite with the public Voice in offering our Tribute of Thankſgiving for the Bleſſings which diſtinguiſh us as a Nation, and we pray for their long Continuance under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign.

By Order of the General Court.

Benjamin Way, Sub-Governor.
Robert Darell, Deputy Governor.

South-Sea Houſe, 5th June, 1800.

[Tranſmitted by the Sub-Governor.]

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Capital Burgeſſes, and Common-Councilmen of the Borough and Pariſh of Southmolton, in the County of Devon.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Capital Burgeſſes, and Common-Councilmen of the Borough and Pariſh of Southmolton, having our Boſoms impreſſed with the deepeſt Horror and Indignation at the late atrocious and diabolical Attempt on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, humbly beg Permiſſion to preſent our unfeigned Congratulations to your Majeſty and the Nation, on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from ſuch imminent Danger.

Truly ſenſible of the manifold Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and equitable Government, we acknowledge with the moſt profound Humility the Divine Interpoſition on this trying Occaſion, and ſhall not ceaſe to make our Supplications to Almighty God, that he will ever extend his guardian Wings for your Protection in the Moment of Danger, that he will ſhield your valuable Life with his Omnipotent Arm from the Violence of ſecret Aſſaſſins, and the audacious Deſigns of foreign Enemies, and that the Crown may long flouriſh on your Royal Head, and remain with unfading Luſtre in your Royal Houſe to the lateſt Poſterity.

By Order of Court.

Geo. Sharland, Town-Clerk.

Southmolton, 28th May, 1800.

[Tranſmitted by the Earl of Forteſcue.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, the Maſter, Wardens, and Brethren of the ancient Corporation of the Maſter Pilots and Seamen of the Trinity-Houſe in Newcaſtle-upon-Tyne beg Leave humbly to preſent to your Majeſty our moſt reſpectful and ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's late providential Eſcape from the Peril of Aſſaſſination; and whilſt we lament the audacious and depraved Spirit which could influence the deſperate Aſſaſſin to attempt ſo horrid a Deed, we earneſtly offer up our moſt fervent Prayers to the Almighty for the Preſervation and long Continuance of your Majeſty's Life ſo neceſſary and important to the Happineſs and Welfare of the Britiſh Empire.

In Teſtimony whereof, Thomas Shadforth Maſter, hath hereunto ſigned his name, and we have cauſed the Common Seal of the ſaid Corporation to be affixed this Twenty-ſeventh Day of May, in the Year One thouſand eight hundred.

Thomas Shadforth, Maſter.

WE, the Dean and Faculty of Advocates of Scotland, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our moſt ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy Eſcape from the Danger which lately threatened your ſacred Life.

Warmly attached as we are to your Majeſty's Perſon, and deeply ſenſible of the Bleſſings we owe to your auſpicious Reign, we cannot ſufficiently rejoice in the Safety of a Life ſo dear to us, ſo awfully important in theſe Times to the Preſervation of the Laws and Conſtitution, the Security and Happineſs of theſe Kingdoms. We rejoice that the Welfare of theſe Realms is connected with the Safety of a Sovereign whom ſo many Virtues recommended to the ſpecial Protection of Providence.

Our moſt ardent Prayer ſhall ever be that God may long preſerve the Life of your Majeſty, ſo important to the public Proſperity, ſo dear to the Hearts of a free, a happy, and a grateful People.

R. Dundas, Dean of the Faculty.

[Tranſmitted by the Lord Advocate.]

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Town-Council of Burntiſland, in Council aſſembled, impreſſed with the utmoſt Horror and Indignation at the late moſt daring and atrocious Attempt upon your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, beg Leave in a moſt humble and reſpectful Manner to offer your Majeſty our ſincere Congratulations on your providential Eſcape from ſo great a Danger.

At the ſame Time we beg Leave to expreſs our firm and unalterable Attachment to your Majeſty's auguſt Perſon, your illuſtrious Family, and your mild and equitable Government; and we moſt fervently and earneſtly pray to Almighty God, that he will long preſerve your Majeſty from every Danger, in the full Enjoyment of Health and Happineſs, to reign over a free, a loyal, and a grateful People.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, by

R. Beatſon, Provoſt.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Council of the Royal Burgh of Dyſart.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Council of the Royal Burgh of Dyſart, humbly beg leave to offer to your Majeſty our moſt ſincere and cordial Congratulations upon the providential Deliverance of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon from the late atrocious Attempt upon it.

While we contemplate with Gratitude the Happineſs and Security which your Subjects have enjoyed during your Majeſty's wiſe and beneficent Reign, we are filled with Horror and Indignation at the Danger to which thoſe Bleſſings have been recently expoſed.

We earneſtly pray for the Preſervation and long Continuance of your Majeſty's moſt valuable Life, and we entreat your Majeſty graciouſly to accept our Aſſurances of the moſt zealous and unalterable Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment at Dyſart, the Twenty-ſeventh Day of May, in the Year One thouſand eight hundred.

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town-Council of Dumfries, in their Common-Hall aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the Magiſtrates and Town-Council of Dumfries, deeply impreſſed with the late atrocious Attempt on your moſt invaluable Life, by the Arm of a cruel and deſperate Aſſaſſin, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with ſincere and heartfelt Sentiments of Congratulation on your providential Eſcape, and to expreſs our Loyalty and Attachment to your Majeſty ſacred Perſon, Family, and Government.

While we do this we fervently implore the Divine Majeſty to make you the Object of his peculiar Care and Protection; and that he may long preſerve you as the Parent of a free, affectionate, and happy People.

Signed in our Name and Preſence, and by our Appointment, this Twenty-eighth Day of May, in the Year One thouſand eight hundred, by David Haig, Provoſt and Chief Magiſtrate.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Archdeaconry of Cleveland, in the Dioceſe of York.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Archdeaconry of Cleveland, in the Dioceſe of York, fully ſenſible of the Advantages which we enjoy under the unrivalled Conſtitution of this Country, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's Throne with our ſincere Congratulations on your late providential Eſcape from imminent Danger, by a daring Attack on your Royal Perſon. United as we are in dutiful Subjection to your Majeſty's Government, and in warm Affection to your Royal Perſon, we ſhould feel ourſelves deficient in our Duty if we did not expreſs our firm Truſt that a kind and ſuperintending Providence will long preſerve your Majeſty's Life, a Bleſſing to this Nation in general, and to your illuſtrious Family in particular.

Given under our Archidiaconal-Seal the Twenty-ſeventh Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand eight hundred.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean, and Chapter, Archdeacon, and the Clergy of the Dioceſe of Peterborough.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacon, and the Clergy of the Dioceſe of Peterborough, moſt earneſtly deſire to approach your Royal Preſence, having our Hearts deeply impreſſed with the utmoſt Grief and Concern, as well as burning with the livelieſt Indignation, at the late horrible Attempt of a moſt wicked and deſperate Aſſaſſin upon your Majeſty's ſacred Life and Perſon; but at the ſame Time we are happy in reflecting, that it muſt ſerve to render your Majeſty and your Government over us ſtill more dear and precious, if poſſible, to every good Subject, and the Enemies of both ſtill more deteſtable in the Eyes of God and Man.

We do moſt ſincerely and devoutly offer up our Praiſes and Thankſgivings to Almighty God for the Preſervation of your Majeſty's invaluable Life; and we do moſt ſolemnly aſſure your Majeſty, that nothing ſhall be wanting on our Parts to defeat, as far as in us lies, every daring and dangerous Deſign againſt a Life ſo deſervedly dear to us all, as well as every factious Attempt to diſturb or to weaken your Majeſty's mild and gracious Government over us, to the Support of which we are ready to ſacrifice all we hold dear.

And we moſt ſincerely and earneſtly pray to the Almighty Diſpoſer of all Events, that he would, out of his abundant Mercy and loving Kindneſs, continue your Majeſty long, very long, our Ruler and Governor: and that whenever it ſhall pleaſe him, in his Divine Wiſdom, to remove your Majeſty from a loyal and affectionate People, and from thoſe Toils and Troubles which are inſeparable from an earthly Throne, He will receive you to Himſelf, and tranſlate you into a Kingdom of endleſs Peace, Felicity, and Glory.

dential and happy Eſcape from the Hands of a baſe and flagitious Aſſaſſin; and with Hearts full of Gratitude to Almighty God, for this ſignal Interpoſition of his Divine Providence, moſt fervently pray that he, of his infinite Goodneſs and Mercy, may long, very long, continue to watch over and protect a Life ſo dear to all your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, and ſo important to the beſt Intereſts of civilized Society, as that of our Patriot King.

[Tranſmitted by Lieutenant Governor Shaw.]

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of the Church of Scotland, met in the General Aſſembly, beg Leave to approach the Throne with Sentiments of the ſincereſt Attachment to your Perſon and Government.

Grateful to Providence for that happy Conſtitution, under which Britons have ſo long enjoyed every Bleſſing that can ſweeten and adorn ſocial Life, we reflect with the deepeſt Regret on thoſe groundleſs Complaints and Murmurings which were heard at no diſtant Period in every Corner of our Land, and which furniſhed a juſt Subject of Alarm to the Friends of Order and Peace: but we rejoice to think that the Exertions of the Virtuous, the Writings of the Wiſe, and the ſeaſonable Interpoſition of public Authority, have ſerved by the Bleſſing of Heaven to counteract the inſidious Acts of the diſaffected; and it affords us the ſincereſt Satisfaction to be able to aſſure your Majeſty, that among the great Body of the People committed to our Care, there prevails an unſhaken Attachment to our excellent Conſtitution in Church and State, and a juſt Abhorrence of that Syſtem of Impiety and Anarchy which hath ſpread Miſery and Deſolation through many Parts of the Earth.

In reviewing the Events of a War, on the Succeſs of which depends the Preſervation of all that is dear to a virtuous Mind, we admire the Wiſdom and the Steadineſs of your Majeſty's Councils, which have kept alive the Hopes, and animated the Exertions of the other States of Europe; and while our devout Acknowledgments aſcend to the Lord of Hoſts, who hath ſupported our righteous Cauſe, with heartfelt Pleaſure we congratulate your Majeſty on the many important Advantages which have been obtained, in the Courſe of laſt Year, by the Arms of our Country, and our Allies. We recollect with Joy, that during this Period, Italy hath been delivered from the Tyranny of lawleſs Force; that to the Kingdom of Naples, its ancient Conſtitution hath been reſtored; that in Egypt a deſperate Plan hath been fruſtrated, by which our Enemies hoped to ſpread Sedition and Tumult through the remoteſt Regions of the Earth; that the Defeat of a formidable Rival, whom their reſtleſs Hoſtility had excited againſt us, hath placed the Britiſh Poſſeſſions in India in a State of permanent Tranquillity; and that on the Coaſt of Holland, a Fleet equipped for the very Purpoſe of conveying Invaders to our Shores, hath ſurrendered to us without a Battle, adding a new and a glorious Trophy to the many ſignal Victories which the Valour of our Seamen hath obtained.

In this rapid Succeſſion of Events which contribute ſo much to the Security of our native Country, and the general Intereſts of Mankind, we adore the Providence of that Almighty Being to whom "the Glory and the Victory belong;" and we would implore them as a Ground of Hope, that the Cauſe of Religion and good Order will triumph over all Oppoſition; and that the Efforts of Britain and her Allies will be crowned with ſuch farther Succeſs as may enſure a happy Termination of the important Conteſt in which they are engaged.

That Almighty God may protect your Majeſty's Perſon, direct your Councils, and proſper your Adminiſtration; that He may bleſs our Gracious Queen Charlotte, the Prince and Princeſs of Wales, and all the Royal Family; and that after ſwaying the Sceptre for many Years with Wiſdom and Felicity over a loyal, a virtuous, and a happy People, you may, through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord, receive that unfading Crown which awaits the Righteous, are the earneſt Prayers of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,
Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, moſt faithful, and moſt obedient Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders met in this General Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland.

George Baird, Moderator.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Council, of the Burgh of Campbeltown, in full Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Council of the Burgh of Campbeltown, in full Council aſſembled, humbly preſent to your Majeſty our unfeigned and heartfelt Congratulations on your providential Deliverance from the late wicked and atrocious Attempt on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon.

From a ſerious Conſideration of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's Reign, upon which we ſet the Value it juſtly deſerves, and from the never-ceaſing Proofs of your Majeſty's Solicitude for the Happineſs, Welfare, and beſt Intereſts of your Subjects; with the greater Horror and Indignation, do we contemplate the Enormity of the late diaboljcal Attack, on a Sovereign whoſe Life has been marked with a Series of the moſt affectionate and extenſive Benevolence to his People.

We therefore beg Leave, moſt Gracious Sovereign, to renew to your Majeſty our ſincere Aſſurances of our Loyalty to your Perſon and Government, and of our firm and faithful Attachment to our moſt excellent Conſtitution, as well as our Determination, at all Times to ſupport it, and to guard and defend your Majeſty's moſt valuable Life, to the utmoſt of our Power againſt the audacious Attempts, whether public or concealed, of foreign or domeſtic Enemies.

THE following Addreſs has been preſented to the King; which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly:

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop of London, the Dean and Chapter of Saint Paul's, and the Clergy of the Cities of London and Weſtminſter.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop of London, the Dean and Chapter of Saint Paul's, and the Clergy of the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, beg Permiſſion to approach your Royal Preſence with our heartfelt Congratulations to your Majeſty on your late providential Deliverance from the nefarious Attempt of a deſperate Aſſaſſin.

Although we cannot but contemplate this atrocious Deed with Horror and Diſmay, yet, however deteſtable in the Intention, it has in the Event brought along with it no ſmall Conſolation to our Minds. It has given a freſh Proof to us that there is a Power on high, ſuperior to all the Machinations of Man, which ſees and turns aſide from your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, every hoſtile Blow that is aimed againſt it. It has at the ſame Time afforded your Majeſty an Opportunity of diſplaying that calm, compoſed, and ſteady Fortitude which ſtands unappalled amidſt Dangers, that make every other Heart in the Kingdom tremble for a beloved Sovereign; and it has alſo called forth from all your Majeſty's Subjects ſuch unequivocal Marks of Affection and Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, ſuch univerſal Indignation againſt the Miſcreant that has dared to lift up his hand againſt you; ſuch undiſſembled Joy at the Failure of his diabolical Purpoſe, as cannot fail to give your Majeſty the ſincereſt Satisfaction, and to convince you (were any Proof neceſſary) that your Majeſty reigns in the Hearts of all your Subjects.

We are, Sir, indeed moſt devoutly thankful to the Almighty for having once more preſerved a Life inexpreſſibly dear to us, and in which are bound up the moſt important Intereſts, not only of this Kingdom, but of the whole Chriſtian World. The firm and the noble ſtand your Majeſty has made for ſo many Years againſt the common Enemies of Mankind has rendered your Majeſty's Name illuſtrious upon the Continent, and given the Nations of Europe a lively Intereſt in your perſonal Safety and Welfare.

But to us, who have the Happineſs of living under your immediate Protection, who have daily Inſtances before our Eyes of your paternal Tenderneſs for your People, and your inviolable Regard for our envied Conſtitution both in Church and State, who feel the Influence of that Example which throws new Luſtre round the Throne, and adds Weight to the great Cauſe of Morality and Religion. To us, every Danger that approaches your Royal Perſon gives an Alarm which no Words can expreſs, and which nothing but a firm Truſt in the Divine Favour can quiet and compoſe.

Under theſe Impreſſions we cannot but feel moſt deeply the Magnitude of the Bleſſing which has been juſt vouchſafed to us; and we can never ceaſe imploring the great Ruler of the Univerſe, that he would ſtill be pleaſed to cover your Majeſty with that heavenly Shield which has been ſo often interpoſed between you and Danger; and that he would in his Mercy preſerve to us for many Years to come, the Father of his People, the Guardian of our Liberty, our Laws, and our Religion, and the intrepid Defender of every Thing that is moſt dear to us as Men, as Britons, and as Chriſtians.

To which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following Moſt Gracious Anſwer:

I Thank you for this dutiful and loyal Addreſs, and for your affectionate Congratulations on the merciful favoured Protection which the Almighty has vouchſafed to Me.

This new Proof of your invariable Attachment to My Perſon and Government is highly acceptable to me; and you may depend upon the Continuance of My Exertions for the Defence and Maintenance of our invaluable Conſtitution both in Church and State, and for the Security and Advancement (under the Bleſſing of the Divine Providence) of the great Intereſts of the whole Chriſtian World.

Downing-Street, June 8, 1800.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is an Extract, has been received from the Right Honorable Lord Minto, His Majeſty's Envoy Extraordinary and Miniſter Plenipotentiary at Vienna, by the Right Honorable Lord Grenville, His Majeſty's Secretary of State for the Foreign Department.

Vienna, May 28, 1800.

I Have the Pleaſure to acquaint your Lordſhip that the Citadel of Savona ſurrendered on the 15th Inſtant. The Garriſon are Priſoners of War. I have the Honor to incloſe the Extraordinary Court Gazette publiſhed on that Occaſion.

Extraordinary Supplement of the Vienna Gazette, May 27, 1800.

BY Captain Salomon, of the Regiment of Lattermann, who arrived here laſt Night as Courier, Count Melas, General of Cavalry, has ſent Intelligence from Nizza dated the 17th Inſtant, that according to the Report of Major-General Francis Count Saint Julien the Enemy's General Buget, who defended the Citadel of Savona, finding himſelf under the Neceſſity of capitulating, on the 15th a Capitulation had immediately been concluded upon the following Conditions:

The Garriſon of the Enemy was to march out on the 16th at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, with the uſual Honors, and as will be ſeen by the following Articles of Capitulation, to be marched as Priſoners of War into the States of Upper Auſtria.

The General could not as yet ſpecify the Strength of the Garriſon, nor the Amount of the Cannon and Ammunition and Magazines of different Sorts in the Citadel, as Major-General Count Saint Julien had delayed ſending an Account of them until the Enemy ſhall have evacuated the Place.

Captain Salomon has on this Occaſion gained much Reputation.

General Melas mentions at the ſame Time that the Enemy's Generaliſſimo had made ſeveral Attacks on the 13th in conſiderable Force on Field-Marſhal-Lieutenant Count Hohenzollern at Durazzo, but had been repulſed by our Troops.

The Enemy's General of Diviſion Soult, a Chief of Brigade, and many of the Enemy have been made Priſoners of War in theſe Attacks; and the General promiſes to forward by the firſt Opportunity the Particulars ſent him by the Field-Marſhal-Lieutenant.

CAPITULATION between the Imperial Royal General Count Saint Julien, Commander of the Troops blockading Savona, and the French General of Brigade Buget, Commander of the ſaid Citadel.

Art. I. The French Garriſon ſhall march out of the Citadel of Savona with all Honors of War, with Arms and Baggage, Drums beating and Colours flying, and ſhall march by the ſhorteſt Way to France, without being made Priſoners of War; they ſhall be eſcorted by the Imperial Royal Troops to the firſt Poſts of the French, and during their March they ſhall be ſupplied with the neceſſary Subſiſtence.

Anſwer.—The French Garriſon is to march Tomorrow Afternoon, the 16th of May, at Three o'Clock, out of the Citadel, with the uſual Honors of War, Arms, Baggage, Drums beating and Colours flying, but they ſhall lay down their Arms upon the Glacis, and become Priſoners of War; they will be conveyed to the Interior of Italy till the General in Chief of the Imperial Army in Italy takes other Meaſures on this Point.

Addition to the firſt Article.

The Officers of the Garriſon are to keep their Swords or Sabres as well as their Horſes and Baggage; and the Privates their Knapſacks; all thoſe who are not amongſt the Number of Combatants ſhall have Permiſſion, the French to return to France, and the Italians to their own Country. The Surgeons are excepted, and whoever elſe belong to the Service of the Sick, who are to remain to take Care of the Sick and Wounded who may be unable to follow the Garriſon.

Art. II. The Officers of the Garriſon ſhall be provided with the neceſſary Means to convey their Baggage and Property with them.

Anſwer.—Agreed.

Art. III. The Sick and Wounded ſhall be tranſported by Sea, and thoſe who cannot be removed ſhall remain in the Hoſpitals of Savona, and ſhall be entitled to return to France after their Recovery.

Anſwer.—The Sick and Wounded ſhall be treated with every Attention that Humanity requires, but after their Recovery they ſhall remain Priſoners of War.

Art. IV. The Troops of Liguria (Genoa) ſhall be at Liberty to follow the Garriſon to France, or to return to their own Country without being moleſted in any Way on that Account.

Anſwer.—Every one who belongs to the Combatants of the Garriſon is included in the Anſwer given to the Firſt Article.

ADDITIONAL ARTICLE.

The Auſtrian Officers who might be Priſoners of War in the Citadel, are to be conſidered as exchanged as ſoon as the Imperial Troops ſhall have taken Poſſeſſion of the Place. Immediately after the Capitulation is ſigned the Hoſtages ſhall be exchanged, and the Gate of the Caſtle ſhall be put in Poſſeſſion of the Imperial Troops.

All Plans and Writings which have any Relation to the Place and its Fortifications, as well as all Cannon and Ammunition, are to be delivered faithfully to thoſe who are ſent on the Part of the Imperialiſts for that Purpoſe.

FRANY Count ST. JULIEN, Imperial Royal Major-General.

BUGET, French General.

Savona, May 15, 1800.

ADDITIONAL ARTICLE.

The Garriſon ſhall not be ſent to Germany but be allowed to ſtay in Italy, and ſhall be amongſt the firſt offered to be exchanged.

Anſwer.—The Garriſon of Savona ſhall only remain in Italy until a farther Deciſion of the Commander in Chief on this Head is received; concerning their early exchange I ſhall Intereſt myſelf perſonally. (Signed) Count ST. JULIEN.

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Lord Keith, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majeſty's Ships and Veſſels in the Mediterranean, to Evan Nepean, Eſq; dated on board the Minotaur, off Genoa, the 16th May 1800.

SIR,

YOU will be pleaſed to acquaint their Lordſhips with the Reduction of the important Fortreſs of Savona this Day by Famine, in conſequence of the Vigilance and Activity of His Majeſty's Officers, and thoſe of the King of Naples, whoſe Boats have rowed Guard during Forty-one Nights with a Perſeverance highly creditable to them all, particularly Captain Downman of the Santa Dorotea, Captain Settimo of the Neapolitan Brig Strombolo, and Lieutenant Jackſon, acting Captain of His Majeſty's Sloop Camelion, to whoſe Care the Blockade of Savona has been more eſpecially committed. I have ſeen the Terms propoſed, accepted them, and authorized Captain Downman to ſign the Capitulation, (in Conjunction with Major-General Count Saint Julien,) in my Abſence.

I underſtand the Garriſon conſiſted of about Eight Hundred Men. A Copy of the Articles of Capitulation, and a Return of Military Stores, &c. ſhall be tranſmitted by the next Opportunity.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.
